7 Ideas for Engaging Parents in Positive Education.

Presented by Justin Robinson, Co-founder and Director of The Wellbeing Distillery.

ABOUT

All parents want their children to be happy. They also want their child to be resilient, to meet with academic success, to develop emotional intelligence, and the list goes on. Your parents can become your biggest supporters of your whole-school approach to wellbeing, but they are busy and are often juggling many demands. The skill of engaging parents in your Pos Ed journey is nuanced and vitally important. In this talk, Justin will explore a range of ideas for helping you to successfully engage your parent community. There will also be time to ask questions and to share ideas.

Justin Robinson is co-founder of The Wellbeing Distillery, an organisation committed to inspiring wellbeing through equipping teachers and empowering school communities. Formerly, Justin was the inaugural Director of the Institute of Positive Education, based at Geelong Grammar School, where he was instrumental in pioneering Positive Education for more than a decade. Justin is passionate about designing, implementing, and sustaining evidence-informed approaches to wellbeing. He is an Honorary Fellow of the University of Melbourne's Graduate School of Education and a board member of the International Positive Education Network.
