

Collective Solutions with Wellbeing and Trauma Aware Pedagogies

Collective Solutions. Real Change.

Masterclass Submissions

We are excited to invite you to contribute to the PESA 2025 National Wellbeing Education Conference, taking place on Monday 8th – Tuesday 9th September 2025. This year's theme is Collective Solutions with Wellbeing and Trauma-Aware Pedagogies. Together, we will unpack practical strategies that support student and educator wellbeing, exploring trauma-aware practices as a critical component of wellbeing education to foster inclusivity. After all, wellbeing isn't a privilege reserved for a select few; it's a fundamental need for everyone.

We are now accepting submissions for masterclasses to be featured in the conference program.
